On November 21, 2013, Debtor-Appellant Russell Jack Grisham filed a Notice of Appeal from Bankruptcy Court and an Application to Proceed in District Court Without Prepaying Fees or Costs (“Application”). The Application was denied in a November 29, 2013 Order. Dkt. No. 3. Thereafter, the Clerk of Court sent Grisham a letter dated December 11, 2013, instructing him to pay the statutory filing fee of $298 to the United States Bankruptcy Court by December 27, 2013. To date, Grisham has failed to (1) pay the required filing fee, (2) file a designation of items to be included in the record, (3) request a transcript for the hearing held on October 4, 2013, or (4) file a statement of issues presented, as required by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8006.

On January 22, 2014, the Court ordered Debtor-Appellant Grisham to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute by February 5, 2014. The Court also cautioned Debtor-Appellant Grisham that failure to respond to the Order to Show Cause would result in the dismissal of the appeal. As of the date of this order, Debtor-Appellant Grisham has not responded to the Order to Show Cause. Accordingly, the Court HEREBY DISMISSES this
